I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Evolution is ALA's advanced mixed show choir. Composed of more than 50 men and women, 8 tech crew, and a show band of 12, Evolution competes at the highest level, with specially designed sets, best-in-the-business choreography and in-depth vocal nuances that create performances second to none. The course is also designed to apply the musical and vocal skills learned in previous ALA choirs, and is to be taken simultaneously with Concert Choir. Evolution is an audition-only group. Performance and rehearsal demands are high. In addition to regular classes every day, students also have additional rehearsals weekly as deemed necessary by the director. Evolution seeks those who are talented, passionate, dedicated to their craft, and who are willing to put in the extra time and energy to reach the pinnacle of competitive show choir, representing ALA throughout the nation during our competition season, which runs February through April. Tours are included and required in the curriculum, as they provide unique opportunities for significant personal and ensemble musical enhancement, academic growth and life-lasting memories of incredible times with some of your best friends! Auditions are held at the end of each academic year and performance commitments begin in the summer.

Please see the attachment, "Choir Finance Form," online for further information.

- All Show Choir students are required to pay for the designated costume.

V. GRADING / ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES.

A. REHEARSAL PARTICIPATION (60%)

There are two elements of the rehearsal participation score: attendance and rehearsal participation. Students are given 10 points each rehearsal for attendance. The students' rehearsal participation score will be determined by level of participation, their attitude, and their behavior during rehearsals.

Daily Rehearsal Participation

As this is a movement and vocal class, you are expected to be punctual to class and are required to know the information given in prior classes, especially if absent.

Point System (Maximum points per day = 4):

- 4 points = Punctual and ready; great participation throughout class.
- 3 points = Parent or doctor excused, school activity, vacation, excused tardy.
- 2 points = Unexcused tardy; not in assigned attire; poor participation.
- 1 points = Unexcused absence; truancy; suspended.

The following are additional causes for losing points:

talking during a rehearsal, putting on makeup, wearing a hat, folder not put away, doing other homework in class, using improper language, costumes left behind, not having a pencil, using a cell phone, or leaning in chair.

Making up Rehearsal Participation Points

To make-up excused absences, students must use an Absence Make-up Form available in the Choir Room. The students must complete 30 minutes of private rehearsal with our current repertoire to make-up the absence. In most cases, the student will be able to make-up all the points they missed by being absent, but the instructor reserves the right to reward or to remove points as necessary. Students will have 2-weeks from the day of the absence to make up the points.

Sit-Out Day

Students will be allowed one sit-out day per term. He or she will be expected to document the procedures of the class that day and new knowledge that was obtained. Personal meaning and discoveries must be documented. This information should be written in an essay format and will be turned into the teacher at the end of the period. If this information is not turned in, the student will be treated as if he or she were absent. The 2nd time that the student sits out, 5 points will be given for participation that day, 3rd time is 4 points, 4th time is 3 points and so on.

B. PERFORMANCE PARTICIPATION (25%)

Each required performance is worth a pre-determined amount of points. If the student attends all performances on time, they will earn all possible points.

1. Concert Attendance — 50 points each; forty points if late, 25 if excused one week in advance. All choir members must sign in at each function to receive points. If you are caught signing someone else in, whom is not attending, you will lose all points possible for that event.

2. Written Performance Evaluation — 50 points
3. Flier and Poster Distribution – 50 points

Criteria and Points Eared for Concerts, Performances, and Extra Rehearsals

- On Time for Call Time = 50 points
 - Correct Concert Attire = 25 points
 - Concert Etiquette = 50 points
 - Compelling Performance = 75 points
- TOTAL POINTS = 200

Excused Performance Absense

In the rare circumstance that a student needs to miss a performance, the instructor must receive e-mail notification from a parent/gaurdian at least one week prior to the performance. If the instructor receives adequate notification and the instructor deems the circumstances justified, the student will be eligible to make-up a portion or all of that performance's points by copleted the performance make-up assignment.

Unexcused Performance Absences

If a student misses a performance without prior notificaiton, the student may not be able to make-up that performance's points and it may result in the student being dismissed from the choir. Of course, the instructor reserves the right to discern when circumstances are emergency situations out of the hands of the student. Nevertheless, the eligibility of the student to make-up points will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

C. CHORAL ENRICHMENT EXERCISE (5%)

You must complete one Enrichment Exercise per semester. If you are enrolled in more than one choir, only prepare one Enrichment Assignment. All submissions are to be typed and double-spaced and are due one week before the last day of the quarter. Late Enrichment Exercises will onlybe accepted until the end of that quarter and points will be deducted.

Deadline reminders will be discussed in class, as well as on the board. It is the students responsibility to turn these in in a timely manner.

D. COMFORT-ZONE ASSIGNMENT (5%)

One of the desired outcomes of participation in choir is to expand the students' comfort-zone. This will be achieved throught students' completion of four comfort-zone assignments, on each term. Though more information about the comfort-zone assignments will come later, here is a list of the requirements:

- A self-expoloration presentation
- A reflections depiction
- A comfort-zone experience reflection

- A letter of gratitude

E. CLASS ASSESSMENTS (5%)

- Music should be handled with care. During the semester you will be handling a lot of music. It is your responsibility to return the music in the same condition that you received it in or you will be billed $3.00 per octavo missing.
- REPERTOIRE SELECTION: Students in ALA Choirs will sing a variety of literature and will experience a wide spectrum of music from the early Renaissance through the 20th Century. By studying these genres one will expect to perform religious music.

It is the position of MENC, The National Association for Music Education, that the study and performance of religious music within an educational context is a vital and appropriate part of a comprehensive music education. The omission of sacred music from the school curriculum would result in an incomplete educational experience.

If one were to attempt to exclude religious music from school performances, one would basically eliminate all the classical church literature. It is the intent of Mr. Lunt and ALA to treat with honor and dignity the rights of all students to worship as they choose according to their own conscience. The study of nondenominational church music will be limited to its musical, historical, and cultural elements. See Mr. Lunt with any questions.

Costume Codes:

- The Concert Choir student owns the dress and tuxedo. Any alterations and cleaning are the responsibility of each individual student.
- If assigned jewelry is lost, you will be required to purchase another set. If jewelry is not worn during a concert, you will not receive full participation points.
